

GUIDE TO HELP

NEIGHBORHOOD LEGAL SERVICES

Because Justice is for All

When it's your health, home, personal safety or family on the line, you deserve legal protection so you have a fair shot. That's why civil legal aid provided by Neighborhood Legal Services is so vital.

NEIGHBORHOOD LEGAL SERVICES

*Civil legal aid provided by Neighborhood Legal Services
assures fairness in the civil justice system, regardless of how much money you have.*

Who We Are

In 1966, Neighborhood Legal Services opened its doors with a commitment to equal access to justice for all people and a mission to meet the civil legal needs of the economically disadvantaged individuals in our community through effective legal representation and education. NLS provides civil legal aid to the poor, victims of domestic violence and other vulnerable residents of Allegheny, Beaver, Butler and Lawrence counties.

All of the cases that NLS handles have reached a crisis stage that threatens the fundamental safety and security of low-income individuals living in our community. These issues involve the basic essentials of life such as family security, safety, shelter, food, work, warmth and health.

What Type of Help Do We Offer?

Staffed by skilled lawyers, deeply committed to the practice of civil legal aid, NLS attorneys may provide one or more of the following: advice, limited services, court representation, and information and referral. Unfortunately, we cannot provide court representation to everyone who may need help. We also provide community education on legal topics and free interpretation services to those with limited English abilities and the hearing-impaired. Referrals to private attorneys, both free and reduced-fee are provided when available and appropriate.

Can We Help You?

NLS offers legal help to those who live in Allegheny, Beaver, Butler, and Lawrence counties. We do not help with criminal cases. U.S. Citizenship is required unless you are trying to get protection under the Protection from Abuse Act, are a victim of trafficking, or sexual assault. We can also help some documented immigrants (see our website for more information). Our ability to help depends upon income and the income limits are set differently depending upon the funding we receive.

Where Can You Get More Information?

You can visit our website at www.NLSA.us.

You can also obtain legal information on a variety of legal topics by visiting www.PALawHELP.org.

How Much Does It Cost?

All of our services are free of charge to eligible clients. In a small number of cases, clients may be required to pay some court costs.

HELP FROM PRIVATE ATTORNEYS

NLS is able to serve more people in need through its Pro Bono Referral Programs. Eligible clients are referred to private attorneys for free or reduced-fee representation.

SHARING RESOURCES

In order to provide more services to our clients, NLS shares resources and expertise with neighboring legal services programs in the Southwestern Pennsylvania region and statewide as part of Pennsylvania Legal Aid Network (www.palegalaid.net).

How to Apply for Help

To find out if you qualify for legal assistance from NLS you can visit our website at www.NLSA.us. To apply online choose the “Get Legal Help” tab or you may call the office for your county (M-F 9am to 1pm).

How Can You Help?

NLS provides civil legal assistance to vulnerable and low-income individuals and families in our region who otherwise could not afford legal help—the demand for which is ever growing. While NLS works diligently to raise funds to support programs and services for those who have nowhere else to turn, we rely on contributions from individuals like you to help us bridge the justice gap. There are many ways you can help assist NLS's development efforts and help our neighbors in crisis return to safe, productive lives. For more information on how you can help, please visit www.NLSA.us.
