IT'S TIME TO WIN! WOMEN'S IMPACT NETWORK

Are you facing economic difficulties and legal problems due to a sudden change in your life?

Are you recently widowed, divorced or separated? Are you facing a sudden job termination or loss? Have you lost child, spousal or alimony support? Have you been denied public benefits?

There may be a legal solution to help you get back on your feet again. NLS's WIN Program provides free legal assistance to women in sudden economic distress. The WIN Program works to foster long-term economic stability by partnering with agencies that provide women with job search training, financial counseling and education, temporary housing or emergency funds to address the immediate crisis.

Speak to your agency contact who will connect you with NLS to determine if you qualify for this service.
